Yes. Do we do it preemptively.

I know but I think it is too confrontational and we just want this to be a one day story and done.

Neither Kendra or I completely trust this guy but we both said he has sounded reasonable on the phone and seemed to want to be somewhat helpful in getting your side of the story out. On the off chance that is the case lets just issue the matter of fact statement.

What do you think?

I do strongly feel that there should be some line in the statement that basically says "fuck you" I'm a private citizen and you are scumbags.

For Hunter Biden:

- 1) When did you first become aware of this Ashley Madison account?
- 2) The account's email address matches an email address that belongs to you. How did this happen?
- 3) The account was validated and confirmed with a credit card transaction of $280 in June of last year. How do you explain this?
- 4) If the account was created by someone else, do you believe that it had something to do with your position with a Ukrainian gas company?
- 5) Do you have evidence that someone hacked into your email? Were you hacked on Twitter or in other ways?
- 6) Was it the Russians?
- 7) Did you ever report being hacked, people out to get you, etc.?

Time is a variable. Thank you

Patrick
